Hi everyone,

Once again, I need to remind you that the winter snowbirds fill up the Florida campgrounds, so please get your site reservations early for our weekends, especially Red Oaks in Feb. as they will not allow us to hold a space for you!

Our December campout was a little different this year. We began Thursday night with a trip to view the impressive Christmas lights in Mt. Dora and they did not disappoint us. We will certainly do that again. The Mexican restaurant that Tom Biehn picked out for us was really great too.

Then on Friday we had fun with our cute clay pot craft and enjoyed Rod Barngrover (guest caller) and Chuck Ryall, they kept us laughing and dancing all evening. We had a few more beginners than we had dancers, but Rod & Chuck did a great job with dancing that we all enjoyed.

Our Saturday evening had no caller due to a scheduling misunderstanding, but Chuck made sure we all had a wonderful time even without the usual squares. Special thanks Chuck, you really saved the evening for all of us. Of course, the goofy Christmas exchange is always so much fun even though our numbers were small this year. Can you believe nobody did any stealing?
