Hi everyone,

First, I must thank everyone who came out for our weekend last month. I cannot remember when we had more fun at Red Oaks than last month. Of course, the trip to Russel Stover Outlet was right up there at the top, besides all the chocolates, they sell Hershey's ice cream too, delicious! Next year, we need to plan a stop at the antique place across the street. It is a don't miss it kind of place! I would be remiss if I did not do a shout out to Lou & Josephina who came all the way from Tallahassee to spend their weekend with us, Sandy & George from Michigan, as well Al & Nell of Chapter 153. We loved having you all with us.

No craft is planned for this weekend; HOWEVER, I was thinking it might be fun to color Easter Eggs (you know the hard-boiled ones) So. if you want to do that, just bring some eggs to hard boil and color. If you happen to have a favorite way of coloring or decorating your eggs, bring the stuff and teach us.
