Hi everyone, A reminder that the snowbirds will be upon us very soon, so get your reservations in early for our weekends, especially Red Oaks in Feb. as they won't hold a space for you!

Our Thanksgiving weekend was fun & delicious too! Though we were small in number our awesome caller and cuer did a great job and kept everyone smiling and dancing. We had turkey craft and thanks to Lana for donating and cutting the tail feather paper for us. We were fortunate to welcome a few guests for the Friday and the Saturday night dances. Thank you to Dick & Inez, Jeri & Peggy Houston and Ed & Bonnie for visiting and dancing with us. John baked us a delicious turkey and everyone contributed many mouth-watering dishes and desserts. And of course we stuffed ourselves as is the norm for a Thanksgiving dinner.

Now I hope you're ready for our Christmas weekend at Wekiva Falls on the 7th, 8th & 9th of December. It is looking like another fun and easy weekend as Wekiva is again doing some of the work for us. We have 2 guest callers for this weekend. Rod Barngrover will be calling for us on Friday evening and Mike Ackers will be calling for us on Saturday evening.

This is our tentative schedule:

Early-Bird Thursday on Dec. 7 - We have put together a small trip to view some Christmas lights in nearby Mt. Dora. We will leave about 3:30 or 4:00 PM make reservations at a small Mexican Restaurant and then walk around the small town and enjoy their beautiful "Light Up Mt. Dora" Christmas lights display. Of course, this is optional and you may choose to stay at the campground, play games, visit the Tiki Hut or whatever you would like.

Friday, Dec. 8 – They have a beautiful pool or great springs to enjoy and if it is a little cold Craig is bringing his propane campfire to gather around. We do not plan lunch, that is up to you. Craig has a cute candle holder craft for us to do. Be sure to read about it at the end of this newsletter. You will need to bring a few items.
